The China Mail.

HONGKONG, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1886.

It has been an interesting question for some time, whether the unusual influx of serious crime which has lately set in here owes its origin to any special cause.
The during attacks which have recently been made upon females in broad daylight and in the open roadway, suggest that an element other than the generally accepted everyday thief and robber has of late been claiming the attention of the Police. Attacks in broad daylight have always marked the worst periods of lawlessness in this Colony; and we have a strong suspicion that these violent crimes are frequently committed, not by old hands who know the easiest ways of stealing, but by desperadoes who have been driven from the mainland by specially severe measures.

We are informed upon unquestionable authority that an extraordinary war of extermination has been and is being carried on, by leading lawbreakers in many of the districts of Kwangtung province, against the criminal and suspected persons in China considered to be dangerous to the peace of the district are not, as here, bound over by a recognisance of $50, or recommended for comfortable quarters in prison, or placed among the candidates for simple deportation. They are, or have lately been, summarily beheaded; and perhaps this circumstance may form a feature in the excuse to be offered later on by those concerned in the piece of international cruelty known as Ah Fung's premature decapitation. This, however, by the way. It is now known that General Foing (in the districts of Wei-chow and Chu-chow), General Teeng Kam (in the district of Kwang-chow, &c., Canton and its neighbourhood), and Colonel Tang Sin (in Tungkong and Sunon, including Kowloing city), have each annually beheaded a very large number of natives whose life was regarded officially as unnecessary to the State. The result of these terribly swift punishments has been, that large numbers of inhabitants or visitors of those districts have deemed it advisable to compare Hongkong, where beheading is unknown, and where even ordinary criminals are free from almost every species of inconvenience. Bad characters have been flocking to this Colony, to save their heads; and yet British administrators hesitate to amend the law so as to fairly meet such a condition of things by whipping.
It is surely time to apply the common-sense suggestions of the Gael. Commission to this new aspect of the case, even apart from the question of accommodation in the Gael itself. When it has come to this—that no respectable or well-to-do native woman will venture out without an escort of several men; and when many of the Chinese refrain from reporting robberies from fear of some-combined action by the thieves by way of revenge,—is there not good ground for trying some more drastic measure than that of merely imprisonment for these refugees from Kwangtung? Two, or three cases of ear-snatching, and more than one case of other kinds of theft, in one day in one district of the town, show that the criminal classes, thus reinforced, are in full swing. The patience of the community, like the Gael wards, is beginning to overflow; and we would once more call upon the Government to do something; and upon the unofficial members of Council to stir up the Executive on this subject.

RUSSIAN CONSULS WITHDRAWN

HIBITION.

It has been finally decided not to reopen the Exhibition of 1886. The exhibits will consequently be dispersed.

THE GOVERNOR'S LEAVE
EXTENDED.

The following telegram has this day been received by His Excellency the Acting Governor from the Secretary of State for the Colonies:—

'Governor's leave extended. Despatch follows by mail.'

Governor Bowen's leave expires, we believe, on the 19th of December next; and he will have held the office of Governor of Hongkong for four years in March next.

This is the old game. Sir George Bowen has already had six months' leave of absence on full pay, and over a year's leave on half pay. The supporters of the Bowen Bargain have a great deal more to answer for than they at the time fancied they had.
